Intro and instrumental: Eb F Gm Gm

verse 1

                                 Eb                                 F                                 Gm
I spend my life upon you, My pearl of greatest price

                                 Eb                                 F                                 Gm
I cast aside distraction, To gaze into your eyes

                                 Eb                                 F                                 Gm
With you my life has purpose, I've found my one desire

                                 Eb F                                 Gm
I only want to be where You are

                                 Eb F                                 Gm
I only want to be where You are

chorus

                                 Eb                                 F                                 Gm
Lord You are so beautiful

I only want to be where You are

                                 Eb F                                 Gm
I only want to be where You are

verse 2

Abandoned for your pleasure, You are my great delight
I'm hungry for your presence, Only You can satisfy Every dream within me, To You I now align
I only want to be where You are,
I only want to be where You are
